

▶ Hanover Private Company Advantage

Tap into expert kidnap and extortion risk management services

Kidnapping and extortion is increasingly common across the globe—and your employees are at risk if they travel internationally. If one of your employees becomes the victim of kidnapping, you want to have an expert on your side to help resolve the situation quickly and effectively.

We have partnered with an internationally experienced security firm, WorldAware®, for kidnap response and risk management resources exclusively for our Private Company Advantage policyholders.

WorldAware® services

As a Hanover policyholder, you have access to numerous WorldAware® prevention and resolution services related to personal and corporate security, including:

- Online country and city intelligence
- Security briefings
- Daily news
- WorldAware® Global Monitor
- Training and briefings, delivered worldwide
- Crisis response services

24/7 Emergency response hotline

In the event of a kidnap or ransom, policyholders may immediately contact the Hanover hotline for the WorldAware® Emergency Response Center, available 24/7.

Visit WorldAware® online for more information:
<https://my.worldaware.com/affiliates/insurance/>

Please note that the independent risk management services offered by WorldAware are accessible to you as a policyholder of The Hanover Insurance Company or one of its subsidiaries and affiliates. The Hanover is independent from WorldAware® and is not responsible for any fees or charges you may incur for services or products which may be offered to you, or for which you may contract with WorldAware®. Under no circumstances should the recommendations, services or products of WorldAware® be construed as recommendations, services or products of The Hanover Insurance Group, Inc. By making this service provider accessible to you, The Hanover does not assume (and specifically disclaims) any duty, undertaking or responsibility to you regarding the risk management services of WorldAware®.