

Hanover Risk Solutions

Employee Fact Sheet

If you are injured on the job, you need to report your claim to your supervisor immediately. This is important because your supervisor needs to complete paperwork that must be sent to The Hanover Insurance Group.

Why is this important to me?

- The law requires you to notify your employer of work-related incidents.
- The Hanover Insurance Group needs the information to process your claim.
- Reporting right away helps keep you from potential problems later on.

Remember to Report
All Accidents Immediately!
